INFANT FAMILY REFLECTIVE SUPERVISOR (IFRS)

Who?

Program supervisors and those providing reflective supervision/consultation (RSC) in the following settings:

- Home Visiting
- Healthy Steps
- Early Intervention
- Early Care and Education
- Technical Assistance/Coaching
- Mental Health Consultation
- And More!

Do You...

- Have current or previous experiences working directly with infants, toddlers, young children and their families in prevention/early intervention?
- Prevent barriers to positive social-emotional or mental health of young children by supporting the relationships the child has with the adults surrounding them?
- Support infant and early childhood professionals through the provision of consistent, ongoing reflective supervision/consultation? Or do you aspire to do so?
- Mentor colleagues, staff, students and novice practitioners to develop infant mental health knowledge and skills?

If you answered YES....

You lead others in their work preventing barriers to the development of positive mental health in young children! Infant Mental Health Endorsement® connects your experience with a set of competencies that recognizes your expertise, links you to a statewide network of professionals, and can enhance your work!
